

FREELANCE ART & DESIGN WORKER

At Real Kombucha, we are changing the way people drink. In a market where alcohol consumption is collapsing, and sugar is a genuine killer, there are few genuine alternatives to a sophisticated alcoholic beverage when out on the town, or relaxing at home. At Real Kombucha we believe we're able to offer another choice.

We are a very fast paced, young company, led by a great team of experienced individuals. The Founder is a seasoned consumer entrepreneur, with companies such as bookings.com, Tom Dixon and Clippings.com already under his belt. And he is supported by talented co-founders from Lucozade Ribena Suntory and Havas Media and a very strong group of investors.

But more than anything, the team is passionate about food and drink. After just 18 months, our products are already served in over 50 Michelin starred restaurants around the UK, and are being rolled out across many of the UK's top restaurant chains, pub groups, caterers and event spaces. We really believe we can change consumer consumption habits for good.
